Due to the porous structure, low heat conduction, high hydrophilicity and renewability, we develop a wood-based solar generator by a facile method of alkali treatment and surface carbonization...

Study of solar thermoelectric generator, which is a promising alternative solar energy technology, continuous power generator and possible modular design

Dr. Ji Dongxu obtained his PhD degree in Nanyang Technological University (NTU). His PhD work is supported by Rolls Royce @NTU Corporate Lab. During 2018-2019, he was employed as Research ...
