

Its main function is to regulate activities in the energy sector in Kosovo including electricity, district heating, and gas, in accordance with the obligations arising from the Energy Community Treaty.

The Energy Regulator is an independent institution which exercises the competences for regulation of the energy sector, as part of the institutions of the Republic of Kosovo and is legally and functionally ...

The Supreme Court of Kosovo today annulled two key provisions of the Energy Regulatory Office (ERO) regulations, deeming them unlawful in relation to the liberalization of the ...

The purpose of this law is to establish rules and measures for the functioning of the electricity sector, guaranteeing secure, reliable, regular and quality electricity supply, at affordable prices, while paying ...

Overview Tariffs Policy and regulation Renewable energy targets Electricity generation Transmission Distribution Electricity consumption The Energy Regulatory Office (ERO) is an independent company which sets the regulatory framework founded on the principals of free trade. The energy price is determined by different factors: operative cost, maintenance cost, import and other factors. The decrease of commercial and technical losses would affect positively. Factors that have kept the low prizes until now are: foreign investments as grants, government subventions, the lack of investments for environment protection and inexpensive la...

ERO is responsible for establishment and enforcement of a regulatory framework for the energy sector (electricity, district heating and natural gas) in Kosovo, ensuring non-discrimination, effective ...

Adopted in 2014, this is the cornerstone of Kosovo's energy regulation. It regulates electricity and natural gas sectors, setting the basis for market liberalization, licensing, and consumer ...

Until 2020, Kosovo promoted renewable energy in the electricity sector using a feed-in tariff, which was suspended by the ERO due to the cost-efficiency of competitive support mechanisms.

All interested parties are hereby informed that the same publications (based on Law no. 03/L-241 on Public Procurement in Republic of Kosovo, article 42 - Publication of Notices) of procurement ...

It provides online access to the country's primary and secondary legislation in English, Albanian, Serbian, Turkish, and Bosnian.

Web: <https://toptradegniezno.pl>

